THE SENTINEL.

JOSIAH TURNER, Jr., EDITOR

SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 3, 1870.

A DRUNKEN JUDGE.

Until yesterday we have never seen a Judge drunk or half drunk on the bench. Yesterday, for the first time, since the infamous rule was served on the father of the Bar, B. F. Moore, Esq., for respectfully remonstrating against the active participation of the Bench in political campaigns, we were in the Supreme Court room. And such a sight as we beheld, the people shall know. The Chief Justice was half reclining, half sitting in his seat and half seas over with whiskey. His drunken rudeness had forced Judge Merrimon to take his hat and leave the Court room, just before we entered.

During the morning session, Judge Merrimon arose and stated to the Court, that the testimony of Boyd and Long as to the character of the organization of the "White Brotherhood," (which was too monstrous to believe) was of such a nature as to render it important that the counsel for the defense should obtain the Constitution, by-laws, &c., of that organization, which they had sent for, and desired to put it in as evidence, and asked the consent of the Chief Justice as the proceedings had passed by. Judge Pearson replied, that he had known lawyers to seek to make a show of something in making such propositions before, when they had no intention of filing the papers, &c., reflecting strongly upon the purity of Mr. Merrimon's motives, as our reporter and others understood. Judge Merrimon having his mind engrossed upon other points, at first, did not fully perceive the bearing of His Honor's remarks. On reflection he saw their insulting character, and called to gentlemen near him to know their impressions. Satisfying himself that an insult was intended, he determined to wait till the afternoon session before he called Judge Pearson's attention to it.

When the Court convened at 3 o'clock, P. M., Judge Merrimon arose and stated that he desired to say a word personal to himself. It had always been his desire and determination and since his connection with the profession of the law, not only to maintain a strict personal integrity in all matters, but especially to maintain a reputation for truth, integrity and honor, professionally. This morning when he requested to be allowed to enter as evidence, the constitution, by-laws, &c., of the "White Brotherhood," he did so in good faith, intending to execute the purpose, and he now desired to call the attention of the Chief Justice to the language and demeanor of His Honor towards him at that time, and to ascertain if his impressions were correct or erroneous as to His Honor's intention. Judge Merrimon took his seat. For a moment the Chief Justice looked with a vacant stare, and then addressing himself to Mr. Badger, said, "Have you any business for the Court, Mr. Badger?" Judge Merrimon immediately left the room.

The conduct of Judge Pearson in this matter deserves the severest censure. His condition was no excuse for him.

DELAY OF THE LAW.

We did not have W. W. Holden the Governor, so called, arrested on Friday last, hangman's day, because we intended Judge Pearson should issue the warrant for his arrest. His Honor the Chief Justice had refused to issue State warrants against Kirk and his men, giving as a reason that he was occupied with other warrants against Wiley and others. We delayed that he might have no excuse.—Thursday evening before they had finished with the case then before the Court, Judge Pearson left the bench leaving upon it Judges Dick and Settle. Mr. Batchelor then read to them our affidavit for a bench warrant against W. W. Holden, Geo. W. Kirk and others. The Court stated that they desired the assistance of the Chief Justice in the matter, and set the case for a hearing on to-morrow, and they wished to hear counsel especially on the point, as to the power of the Judiciary to arrest the Executive. In the mean time Kirk who was in the city left on the night train. We do not charge that there was any understanding between Kirk and the Court that the case should be deferred until morning.—But there was no necessity for defering the case as to Kirk and in our judgment as little for defering it to hear argument as to the power of the Court to arrest the Governor.

The law takes notice of and holds W. W. Holden to as strict accountability, as it would any felon in the land, and it would be a sad state of affairs if it did not. We instructed our counsel, Judge Battle and Mr. Batchelor that they were not to argue the case. We remembered that Messrs. Bragg, Battle, Graham and Merrimon argued some four days to convince Pearson that Kirk was guilty of contempt, when he sent him word that his "papers had played out." The argument only satisfied Pearson that it was the "rude language of a soldier," nor could he be moved to attach him for contempt. We would not have so plain a cause argued before such a tribunal by our counsel. If they have done so, they have assumed the responsibility and we are content. We should not be surprised however, if the arguments of counsel, enable Dick and Settle to write out an opinion, refusing the warrant against Holden, which they could not have done without the aid of counsel's learning. Such an opinion would however be of equal value with that of any Justice of the Peace of the land.

CHIEF JUSTICE PEARSON.

The whole country, even decent, honest Republicans were shocked at the miserable truckling of Chief Justice Pearson to Gov. Holden in the matter of habeas corpus and his manifest sympathy with Holden's unlawful war upon the people of the State.—Whatever reputation Chief Justice Pearson may have secured in the State and country heretofore for legal learning, and for fearlessness in the discharge of duty, his shameless truckling, and his open partizanship in the matter of habeas corpus, prostrated him completely in public estimation. The comments of the public press and the opinions of gentlemen of the legal profession, have been almost universally adverse to his course. From Maine to Texas his conduct and that of Judge Brooks have been held up with a most damaging contrast to the reputation of the Chief Justice, and thus the reputation of a lifetime has been blasted without hope of recovery.

We did hope that the quiet of home, and time for reflection, would lead him when he returned according to the agreement with Holden, to retrace his steps and come back to the time honored principles of justice and of the law; but in the interval the general elections had put Radicalism in the State, hors de combat, and Judge Brooks had stolen his thunder by marching up promptly to his duty; hence Judge Pearson returned to his task in a choleric condition, snapping and snarling at every one who chanced to come in his way, evidently bent upon blood or vengeance upon some one.

Throughout the whole investigation of the Caswell cases, it was generally thought, by spectators, that he bore himself more as a prosecutor than a Judge, evincing strong partizan bias—attaching vast importance to the testimony of every witness for the prosecution, and being entirely oblivious of their bad character, and ignoring the eminent private worth of the accused and of their witnesses. The opinion of the Judges in the cases of the Caswell prisoners, is so manifestly partizan to every unprejudiced mind that no one ever expects to hear of them again, since no impartial Grand Jury would think of finding a bill upon such evidence. Indeed, we learn this is the opinion of the counsel for the prosecution themselves.

But the strong partizan feeling of the Chief Justice and of his Associates has been particularly manifest, as well as on the part of the counsel for the prosecution, since the Alamance cases have been taken up. At times we are told the Justices have exhibited marked anxiety to lead witnesses, to prompt them, as if they had previously given them a private examination.—Boyd and Long seemed to be favorite witnesses of the Court, and especially of Judge Pearson. On one occasion at least, while one witness was up fearing the effect of a searching cross examination from R. H. Battle, Jr., as reported by the Standard, the Chief Justice interfered as if to save his client from defeat.

As proof of this persecuting spirit, we ask the attention of the reader to the report of yesterday's investigation.

SECRET SOCIETIES.

We shall be greatly obliged to any intelligent, honest gentlemen who know, that will send us the Constitutions, by-laws, oaths, signs and workings of the following secret associations: Heroes of America, Union League, Grand Army of the Republic, Constitutional Union Guard, White Brotherhood, Invisible Empire, Democratic Union or any other of the kind. Also any positive, reliable information in regard to the organization, if any, of the Ku Klux. We want to get at the bottom of this thing and know the truth and the whole truth.

It is affirmed that the Heroes of America, Union League and Grand Army of the Republic are Radical secret political organizations—that their real object is purely political and designed to promote the success of the Republican party, and it is further affirmed that the object of the Constitutional Union Guards, White Brotherhood, Invisible Empire and Democratic Union, was purely political and designed to promote the success of the Democratic and Conservative party. It is affirmed that there is nothing in either of these, whether Radical or Democratic, either in their written or unwritten laws, contrary to the Constitution of the State or of the United States, or that any of them ever contemplated vicious, wicked or unlawful conduct on the part of their members, because of their connection with these associations. None of the foregoing associations we understand wear disguises or are in any sense Ku Klux, i. e., they wear no disguises either to scare people or to commit crime.

It is, however, palpable that disguised persons have gone through different sections to scare people and in some cases it is charged, to commit crime. What we want to know, is there such a thing as a Ku Klux organization and where, i. e. a regular or ganized body, fully officered, under by-laws, pledges and oaths, holding regular meetings, who go disguised and whose purpose it is to punish any one for political opinion, &c. Or is it a body of men impressed in particular neighborhoods, disguised, acting as vigilance committees, to punish crime, not political opinions, which the legal authorities will not punish, and not only to punish crime but to correct social abuses upon communities? We want to know the truth, hence we ask. Our object is to secure the ends of peace and right.

"GOV. HOLDEN, WHO GARBLED THE LETTER!"

The last New York Tribune contains a letter from Gen. Abbott, exculpating himself from the charge of garbling the Tourgee letter. The original proves that in one instance the letter was not garbled, but that only Tourgee lied. The other instances now lie at the door of Gov. Holden. Who did it?

The Conservatives of Point Caswell, New Hanover County, are going to have a big time next Saturday.

BENCH WARRANT CASES BEFORE JUDGE PEARSON.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

THURSDAY, Sept. 1st.

Court convened and Dr. Tarpley entered into the required bond of $2,000 to appear before the next term of Alamance Superior Court, and also, of $10,000 to appear at the same time and place to answer a charge of the murder of Wyatt Outlaw and Wm. Puryear. The recognizance was changed so as to require him to appear at Graham instead of before Chief Justice Pearson at Richmond Hill.

Judge Merrimon arose and addressed a few remarks to the Court, the nature of which is fully explained in another place.

The case of the State vs. Julius Somers, Wm. Lowe and Rankin Lowe, for the whipping of Daniel Jordan, in October, 1865.

John W. Tickle, Milton Ruffines and Daniel Whitsell called and sworn as witnesses.

Wm. Tickle examined. Am a member of the Whiteman's Brotherhood; joined about 18 months ago; took an oath, can't repeat it; it bound not to reveal the secrets, and that is all I remember; there was something in it about obeying the Constitution. (The Chief Justice here cautioned the witness that he must not only tell the truth but the whole truth.)

Witness. I will as far as I know it. The members were to obey all calls and summonses of the Chief; don't remember anything else particular.

Chief Justice. The whole thing is spoiled if you go on keeping back; I tell you, you must tell it all.

Witness. I will tell all I know; I will answer the questions the best I know how.

Chief Justice. Suppose you were to get into difficulties, were you bound to help each other.

Witness. Yes sir.

C. J. How about the signs?

Witness. I would have to say, "Shiloh." Don't remember about the other signs.

C. J. Suppose a negro was whipped, for instance, and the whipper was arrested and wanted you to prove an alibi—you know what an alibi is, don't you?

Witness. No Sir, I never heard of it before.

C. J. Well, suppose he wanted you to swear he was at home when the whipping was done, would you do it?

Witness. Yes Sir, if I knowed he was there.

C. J. Witness you know what I mean; this will never do. Wouldn't you be bound to come up and swear it if you didn't know he was there?

Witness. (Hesitating) I don't understand the question, ask it again.

Chief Justice repeats the question.

Witness. I don't think I would.

C. J. Were you not bound by your oath to obey the orders of your Chief, and if he had ordered you to go into Court and swear that the perpetrator of a crime, such as hanging Outlaw, or whipping a negro, was at home when he committed the crime, wouldn't you do it?

Witness, (hesitating, and evidently not clearly comprehending the question, as he is quite illiterate.) Yes sir, I reckon so.

C. J. Suppose one of your members had committed a crime and you were to get on the jury and the case was clearly made out against him, and two or three or, say, four of you were members of the organization, and eight of the jury were for conviction, would you feel bound to oppose it and hang the jury?

Witness, (still confused,) I am not able to tell you; I can't call to mind; I reckon so.

C. J. Then you say you would be for a verdict of acquittal for one of your members if the law and evidence were against him—I understand you to say that?

Witness. Yes, sir.

C. J. Then if you were on the jury in such a case, and you were ordered by your Chief to clear the man, if you knew he was guilty, you would do it?

Witness. No, sir.

C. J. Come, witness, you know you have got to answer at a higher tribunal than this, and may be you may have to answer in this world; I was about to commit a man yesterday, for not telling what he knew.

Witness. I will answer anything you ask me, if I know it; I will tell what I know.

C. J. (severely.) Now witness, if you were on a jury and the design of distress were given you, and you were ordered by your Chief to go to his assistance and to give a verdict in his favor, wouldn't you do it?

Witness. (Hesitatingly,) yes, sir, I reckon so.

[Here followed a rather humorous dialogue between the Chief Justice and the witness in regard to the family of the latter in Alamance county, which caused considerable merriment.]

C. J. Then if I understand you, the oath requires you to, first, keep the secret; second, to help each other; third, to swear that a member is at home when he is arrested for whipping any one, or anything of that sort.

Witness. No, sir; I don't remember there was anything about that in it. If I knowed he was at home, I would.

C. J. But, suppose the Chief told you you must do it, would you

Witness. I would not think I was doing right if I did. I was never told to do anything of that sort.

If the men who murdered Outlaw had cried "Shiloh," think I would have gone to their help. If I didn't I would have to take whatever punishment the camp would put on me; don't know what it would be.

The White Brotherhood was different when I joined it to what it was afterward; understood it was to put down stealing and to increase the Conservative party.

Q. How?

Ans. There was nothing said about how, that ever I heard.

Counsel for the prosecution who had taken no part in the foregoing examination by the Chief Justice, now asked that, they might cross examine the witness, as it was evident he was so illiterate as not to be able to give his testimony without leading.

Judge Battle objected on the ground that such a course was never pursued, except with unwilling witnesses, and it was very apparent this witness was willing to tell all he knew.

The objection was overruled and the counsel for the prosecution allowed to cross-examine their own witness.

Witness. Daniel Jordan was whipped in Alamance; sometime in the Fall of 1869; (mentions several who were present, among them the three defendants.) I was present but did not whip; don't know who struck Jordan; it was night and they had on disguises; he was not tied; had on his shirt and drawers; can't swear as to who struck him with the switches; all did not; he was struck 30 or 40 stripes, may be more; may be less. This was about 10 o'clock at night. He was whipped on a charge of stealing; Julius Somers told me I must go with him; he didn't say he had any orders; he was not the Chief; think he was first Lieutenant; heard that a Mr. Long was head Curse of the County; Somers didn't say that he had ordered Jordan to be whipped; didn't say that W. R. Tickle, the Chief of the Camp, ordered it; don't remember that I asked about it; know that Tickle didn't know about it, for I was to go by and tell him, but didn't do it. Daniel Jordan is said to be now in Ohio.

Don't know what Chief was above Long; Maj. Steiner was said to be a Chief in Guilford, heard there were 1500 in that county; heard of none in any other county; passed no signs with any one in Caswell or Rockingham.

CROSS EXAMINED.

Joined the order about harvest 1869; Daniel Jordan was whipped in October 1869; think it was last year that I joined; it might have been the year before. Have voted and registered in Alamance; took an oath when I registered; don't think the oath of the White Brotherhood was above the oath I took when I registered; think a "Bible oath" is stronger than the oath of the White Brotherhood; would not violate a Bible oath at the order of the Chief.—Never heard any By Laws read. If I were on a jury I would not clear a member of the order if the evidence proved him guilty; if I had been ordered by the Chief to kill a man, I would not have done it; my oath did not bind me to do it.

RE DIRECT.

I took an oath to obey the calls and summonses of the Chief.

Milton Ruffines examined. Belonged to the White Brotherhood; joined about 12 months ago, in Wm. Tickle's camp; don't remember the oath; was carried in by Peter Hughes; he was not the chief. Knew about the whipping of Daniel Jordan; (witness gave substantially the same account of the whipping as that given by the last witness.) Peter Somers told me to go; he was not the chief; don't know who the head chief was; don't know what the number of our camp; don't know that it had any number. Don't know whether Jordan was whipped by any order or not; there were only nine in the crowd that whipped him.

The oath was taken by holding up the hand; have taken an oath to support the Constitution of the United States and of State; considered this oath superior to and more binding than that taken in the White Brotherhood; was not bound to find a verdict in favor of a member against law and evidence, not even if ordered to do so by the chief.

Daniel Whitsell examined. Live in Alamance; belonged to the White Brotherhood; Peter Hughes swore me in; there was no chief of the camp when I joined; Wm. Tickle was chief afterwards; he was chief when Daniel Jordan was whipped. (Witness describes the whipping, as by the other two witnesses.)

CROSS EXAMINED.

Don't know that our camp had any name or number; there was perhaps a dozen members; don't know who was the Chief of the county. The meetings had pretty well ceased at the time Jordan was whipped; witness has not attended a meeting in over six month; the organization has about died out.

The case was here closed and the accused were bound, each, in the sum of $2,000 to appear before the next term of Alamance Superior Court.

JUDGE PEARSON'S OPINION

IN THE CASE OF THE STATE AGAINST TARPLEY, GRAY AND OTHERS.

"Probable cause" has been made out. The parties, except Tarpley, will be recognized severally in the sum of $2,000, with two or more sufficient securities, to appear at the next term of the Superior Court of Alamance county, to answer the charge.

Here we might have stopped, but for the remark of the counsel for the prisoners, that "according to the ruling in Wiley's case, they admitted that probable cause had been shown."

The ruling in that case was put on the ground that, although the evidence made on the minds of the Justices a belief of the guilt of the prisoners, there was such a conflict of testimony by reluctant white witnesses, and by persons formerly slaves, as to make a case peculiarly fit for a jury.

In the case now before us, there is no conflict of testimony; it rests upon a principle of law recognized and acted on as far back as the common law can be traced. We need only to refer to State vs Harden and Haney, 2 Dev. and B. 390 and 408: "The testimony of an accomplice, if it produces entire belief of the prisoner's guilt, is sufficient to warrant a conviction."

The witness, John W. Long, proves the guilt of the prisoner directly—he swears that after Caswell Holt had been whipped by order of one of the camps in Alamance, there was a meeting of two camps or Klans in which it was resolved: That as Caswell Holt, after being whipped, made information before a justice of the peace and had failed to establish the charges against the parties arrested, he should be whipped the second time; whereupon the prisoner, Tarpley, submitted a motion that "Caswell Holt be put to death," giving as a reason, "dead men tell no tales." After discussion the deadly motion was carried by a unanimous vote. It was then moved that "he be hung to a tree and his body be left exposed;" it was then moved, let him be killed and his body secreted, or let him be drowned in Haw river. Finally, it was agreed to leave the matter to the discretion of the Chief of Klan No. 10, on whom the execution of the "death sentence" was put. This, on Monday night, witness was charged to carry the order to Job Fossett, Chief of No. 10, he started by sunrise on Tuesday and delivered the order to ——— by 10 o'clock of that day, the reply was, "it will be done." The deed was not done. Jacob W. Long, the head Chief of Alamance, thought it was going too far and countermanded the order.

The character of this witness for truth and honesty is impeached by Green Andrews who admits that he joined the Ku Klux, being deputy sheriff, but took no part with them, he believes 3 or 4 of his sons are members of the Ku Klux or the "White Brotherhood" as it is now called; three of them are prisoners now on trial; but he frequently told his boys to have nothing to do with the whippings or killing. And by Dr. John A. Moore—He is a member of the order, took no part in the whipping or killing and believes he saved the life of Senator Shoffner whose death had been decreed. But over and above this proof of a bad character there is the fact that this witness is an accomplice and has turned "State's witness" on a promise of pardon; he admits that he obeyed the order to inform Fossett, head of No. 19, to put Caswell Holt to death—and he did so on Tuesday, and expected the deed would be done on the next Friday night. So it falls under the decision, Haney and Hardin supra, and the question is, Does the other evidence contradict or corroborate this witness?

It was a subject of remark, between us, that in our experience as lawyers and as judges, we had never known a witness on the examination in chief, to expose himself more fully to contradiction,—(unless he was telling the truth,) by stating in detail as to place, time and the persons present, the whipping of Seifars in which he was an actor, the whipping of Holt and of Trollinger and Carliss, all of which he narrated as reported by members of the Klan. The burning of the school house, in which he took part, the contemplated murder of Holt and of Shoffner and the actual murder of Outlaw and Puryear by the K. K. or White Brotherhood; and by stating in the general, from reports made to his camp, that the number of members in Alamance was between 700 or 800, in Guilford 1200, in Orange, Chatham, Rockingham and other counties not informed as to the number, but the order extended over the State and amounted to 40,000—has said to have originated with Ex-President Johnson, and to extend over the whole South, for the political purpose of preventing negro equality by whipping, hanging and other acts, necessary to effect that object; and by stating the oath—not to reveal any secrets of the order; to obey the commands of the chief; to go to the rescue of a member and to swear for him as a witness and acquit him as a juror. In short, this witness disclosed a condition of things showing, it true, that the civil authorities were unable to protect life or liberty, confirmed by the fact, that in no one instance have the perpetrators of these crimes and "known felonies," been brought to justice.

It was a further subject of remark, that this witness sustained himself under a most searching cross examination, as well as any person we had ever seen in similar circumstances.

This witness was not contradicted in a single particular, either in the detail or in the general. Andrews and Moore, who swear his character is bad, were forced to admit, that so far as their knowledge extended, he had told nothing but the truth. And Moore confirmed him in the general, by stating that on the night Carliss was taken out of his house in the village of "Company Shops," about 1 o'clock at night, he saw seven or eight men in "white disguises," taking Carliss along, a colored man and the watchman ran out, but immediately retired; he met with seven or eight of the citizens, roused by the noise, but all, including himself, refused to interfere, for fear of the consequences, although Mrs. Carliss was running about the street entreating all persons to save her husband; "in a short time," as Dr. Moore said about half an hour, Carliss came back and the Doctor dressed his wounds.

Again, Moore confirms him, "being told by Boyd that Shoffner was to be killed on that night." I met "the party at Gilbreath's bridge, (on next day, said it was some seven miles from the bridge in the direction of Hillsboro',) told them that Shoffner was not at home, had gone to Greensboro;" one of the party said, "I have come 40 miles to obey this order, if you are deceiving us, it will be your time "next;" thinks there were 8 in the party; this was the only plan that he could adopt to save Shoffner; an appeal to the civil authorities was out of the question; the Sheriff and deputy Sear if belonged to the order.

This witness is also confirmed by Euless. He belonged to the "Constitutional Union Guards," a distinct organization from the White Brotherhood, sworn to support the Constitution as it was. Supposing in all they numbered some 700 in Alamance, 1,200 in Guilford, and 40,000 or 50,000 in the State, one Patterson, a Chief of the "White Brotherhood," told him he had an order from the head Chief of Orange, to kill Shoffner, asked his advice. Thompson Euless gave Shoffner a hint to leave home, and in that way saved his life. One Foust, a member of the order of White Brotherhood, told witness he met the party, or "was one of the party," that met at Gilbreath's bridge, on their way to kill Shoffner, thought there were sixty of them; but hearing that Shoffner was not at home the party dispersed.

Boyd's testimony is to the like effect and confirms the witness in several particulars and in the general; as to Tarpley, who is the leader of the "Christian Church" at Company Shops, being a member; as to leading and official members of other Churches being members, among others Robert Hannah and Thos. G. McLean, and as to many other particulars.

So John W. Long, although an accomplice, is not contradicted, but is confirmed; and the case falls under the decision—Harvey's and Hardin case. We, on this evidence, not merely believe, but we are fully convinced of the guilt of the prisoner.

We think proper to add, General Hunt, commanding the U. S. troops in this State, was invited by us to take a seat on the bench, and heard the whole proceedings.

FOR THE IMPROVED
"UTLEY COTTON PRESS."

THE "UTLEY PRESS" So well known, and which gave entire satisfaction last season, can be obtained of me at Raleigh, or my Agents, Messrs. Mitchell, Allsop Co., Newbern, with its improvements.

Price $175.00.

This invention of power, whereby all friction is overcome, its simplicity, economy and durability, astonishes all who see it; and the more so, that a power so simple should have remained so long unappropriated. The strain is wholly borne by the Bed Plate, Follower Block, and two 1¼ inch square iron bars, which is capable of sustaining a strain of 120,000 lbs. Thus giving much more strength than is required. WITH THIS PRESS TWO MEN CAN PACK A BALE OF COTTON WITH EASE IN EIGHT MINUTES WEIGHING FROM 400 to 550 lbs.
One man can do the work, only requiring longer time.
It occupies a very small space, and can be so placed as to receive the lint direct from the Gin or Lint Room, as may be desired. Thus doing away with baskets, and frequent handling of the lint.
It is light in weight, can be taken down or put up in 30 minutes and transported on a two Horse Wagon.
I believe it unequalled by any Press for power, convenience and durability.
Press complete—Depth Cotton Box 8 feet: Size Bale 4½ feet x26x28x60; wt. Bale 400 to 500 lbs.
THOS. H. BRIGGS.

T. H. BRIGGS, Esq.: Dear Sir:—I used the "Utley Cotton Press," I purchased from you last season, and consider it to be the best Press I ever saw. Having packed bales to weigh from five hundred and ninety (590) to six hundred and twelve pounds (612.) I consider it the best and most durable Press I ever saw used, and can cheerfully recommend its use to the farmers of North Carolina. Yours truly, C. W. BIRUM.

FRANKLINTON, N. C., April 16th, 1870.
MR. THOMAS H. BRIGGS: Dear Sir:—Yours of 13th instant inquiring as to the merits of the "Utley Cotton Press" is to hand, and in reply I would say that I have tried other Presses and consider the press upon which the Utley Press works cheaper, simpler and more durable than any I have met with. Yours very respectfully, JAS. H. WILDER.

RIVER LAWN, CUMBERLAND Co., N. C., April 22nd, 1870.
THOS. H. BRIGGS, Esq: Dear Sir:—In reply to yours of the 13th asking how I was pleased with the Utley Press I used last season, I would say that it gave entire satisfaction.
Respectfully yours, CHAS. H. BLOCKER.

HILLSBORO', N. C., April 22nd, 1870.
THOS. H. BRIGGS, Esq., Raleigh, N. C.: Sir:—I have used "Utley's Cotton Press" for baling hay for some months. It works well and gives entire satisfaction. I regard it as the best Hay Press I have seen. Respectfully, E. H. FOUSE.

RALEIGH, N. C., June 18th, 1870.
T. H. BRIGGS, Esq., Raleigh, N. C.: Dear Sir:—I used the "Utley Cotton Press" I purchased from you last season. I packed my own crop of cotton, also other crops for my neighbors, making in all one hundred bales. I consider it superior in all respects to any Press I have ever seen and that it is every thing the patentee represents. I packed bales weighing four hundred to five hundred and ninety-seven pounds. Yours truly, W. T. HOWLE.

ARROW TIES!
FOR BALING COTTON.

250 TONS, 60 Bundles, 56 lbs. each, and containing 30 Ties (or Buckles,) now in Store.
IMPORTED DIRECT FROM LIVERPOOL.

WE OFFER TO THE FARMERS AND MERCHANTS OF THE STATE THE ABOVE TIES, which are now so universally known and approved throughout the Cotton States, as the Neatest, Strongest and Most Easily and Quickly Applied of any Tie Known in the Market.
The fastenings, as well as the bands, are of the best ENGLISH WROUGHT IRON, and experience has shown that they do not break, as many of the CAST IRON fastenings of other Ties do, thereby saving much expense in rope, labor and mending Cotton at the shipping port.
Prices as low or lower than GOOD TIES can be bought at in any market on the Coast.
Liberal Arrangements made with Merchants and Dealers.

THE SENTINEL.

CITY AND STATE ITEMS.

SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 3, 1870.

☞ THEO. N. RAMSAY, as Business Clerk, is authorized to make contracts and give receipts, &c., &c.

We are authorized to announce Mr. William E. Pell, Jr., of this city as a candidate for Reading or Assistant Clerk of the State Senate. Mr. P. has been the Reporter of the SENTINEL in the Senate for several years.

Sept. 2-tf.

ATTENTION RESCUE.—Meeting at Fireman's Hall, Metropolitan Hall, Monday evening.

OFFICIAL VOTE.—The Governor and Council have fixed upon 4221 as Judge Shipp's majority over Mr. Phillips, leaving out the returns from Gates and Caswell.—The Constitution requires that in all regular elections of the State Executive officers, the returns shall be made to the Speaker of the House of Representatives, and by him counted &c., and that the incumbent elect qualify on the 1st of Jan. following. Mr. Olds fills a vacancy. We presume the vacancy is legally filled when the elected party is ascertained and the Governor makes official proclamation of the same. It is to Judge Shipp will enter upon the duties of the office in a few days. We have not yet seen the Governor's Proclamation.

THE OPINION.—We publish Judge Pearson's opinion in the Tarpley case, simply as a matter of history. Its statements are as reliable as the witnesses Long and Boyd, and its arguments are worth as much. The opinion is very much in the strain of the editorial of the Standard of yesterday in reference to startling developments. The public have had enough of such sensational statements in regard to Ku Klux, to place much confidence in them coming from such sources. The only real discovery of crime and the criminal brought out by this investigation that we can see, is the Gray and Long case who burnt the school house. But this was prompted by personal malice against the owner. The school house was the property of Mr. Worth of Company Shops, a decided Conservative. No political consideration could have influenced their action, nor was it the order of the camp as will be shown. The nearest that has been shown of political bias prompting crime in all these cases, is the information drawn out in reference to Sheffner. Sheffner's conduct had become very offensive to his political opponents, but it is evident it was equally so to many of his political friends, as many of them would not sustain his military bill as originally drawn up.

RUMOR.—It is rumored that at the earnest solicitations of Gov. Holden et al, Judge Bond, the newly appointed U. S Circuit Judge, will visit the city, to condole with the Governor and afford if possible some relief from Judge Brooks' alledged erroneous judicial proceedings. We don't believe any part of the rumor, yet it is not too ridiculous for Holden & Co.

OUTRAGEOUS.—We learn that Kirk and his lambs still hold possession of the office of the Superior Court of Caswell County, that the records and papers are being badly used, some torn up and that Mr. Brannon, the Clerk has appealed to Gov. Holden for relief and that the Governor pays no attention to it. Well, he is only treasuring up the greater wrath against him.

PLAYFULNESS OF THE "LAMBS."—As one of Holden's colored State Troops was passing Mr. Gattis' Confectionery store this morning, he playfully seized the edge of a barrel of crackers, that was sitting at the curb stone, and tilted it over, spilling the crackers on the pavement and in the gutter, and then made tracks. As Mr. Gattis is a gentleman of considerable exuberance of spirits himself, had he seen him in time, it is probable there would have been a collision between the civil and military, then and there. The act was witnessed by a colored lad who declares "he done it a purpose."

ANOTHER PEEK.—As Mr. Adams, a gentleman from Philadelphia, and one of the Company who finished the Round House at the R. & G. Shops recently, was walking by a tent on the Street North of the Baptist Church, yesterday morning, he was "halted" by the sentinel and told he could not pass there; that there was "other side walk." Mr. Adams, not having the fear of Kirk and Holden before his eyes, told him he'd "be d—d" if he didn't pass, and so he did, leaving the negro standing, musket in hand and his mouth open.

INJUNCTION.—We learn that the injunction issued by Judge Mitchell is a very troublesome thing to Holden, Kirk, Clarke and his lambs. It is reported that young Jenkins, the paymaster of the Treasury, will resign and that a ready tool of Holden, will be appointed in his place, who it is said will pay over in spite of the injunction They had better look sharp.

STATE FAIR.—We beg the people to remember that the State Agricultural Fair is held in this City on the 18th, 19th, 20th and 21st of October. It is only about six weeks off, and much to do to get ready.

Our Wilmington exchanges say that Judge Cantwell has relaxed his vigilance considerably since his salary was fixed at $3,000 instead of payment by fees as heretofore.

CHAPEL HILL.—We make the following extract from a letter from Chapel Hill, which requires no comment:

"The University has ten or fifteen students from abroad, and as many day scholars. Most of them are boarding with negroes—for ch spness—and they are all beneficiaries. Neither the Presbyterian or Episcopal churches have been opened this year, and there is preaching in the village only two a month."

"UPON HIS TRACK."

The Governor's organ says, the officers of the law are upon our track. Yes, Indeed, the Governor has had his officers upon our track for nearly two years. His detectives sat daily by the week and month in our office. The murderer and assassin has been upon our track and we are sure they came through the hellish Leagues of which Littlefield and Holden were the Presidents.

By showing a pistol, we drove more than a half dozen of the Governor's officers and sworn Leaguers off of our track at the depot. With a dozen armed members of his infamous League he arrested us with muskets cocked and presented. Muskets which he had borrowed from the League Governor of New Hampshire.

We have had dogs enough put upon our track by the whits layered Leaguer who writes himself Governor. He keeps on our track himself through the Standard. He gives more width than any of the pack, but he is sure to keep Kirk's dogs between himself and the object of his pursuit.

OUR PISTOLS GOVERNOR.

We understand that Jno. W. Long, your witness, threatens to whip us as Col. Wm. A. Moore did for attacks made in the SENTINEL upon him. We think he had better whip Boyd or Dr. Moore or Dr. Tarply, who swore he was a man of bad character for truth and honesty. He ought to whip the negro who last June took out the State's warrant against him for stealing flour. Long, we learn, compromised with the negro by paying the costs, just as chicken Stephens did in Rockingham about the chickens he stole.

Long is said by some to be the man who burnt the school house. Certain it is he called on one man to go and commit the arson and he refused.

Whip your enemies Long. We think as well of you as we do of any President or white man belonging to the League. Don't take advantage of us and attack us before Governor makes five dollars by returning our pistol.

Return of the Vote for Attorney General at the Election, held on the 4th day of August, 1870.

Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, November 8th, 9th, 10th and 11th have been fixed upon as the occasion of the First Annual Fair of the Roanoke and Tar River Agricultural Association, as we learn from the Weldon News.

DIED,

In this City on Thursday night, quite suddenly, JAMES LITCHFORD, Esq., in the 74th year of his age. Mr. L. was a native of James City County, Va., removed to North Carolina in 1820 and has been a resident of this City for nearly 50 years. He was a most excellent citizen, quiet yet strongly marked in his principles, and an honest man. As a husband, father and friend, we have known none better. His death is universally regretted.

FUNERAL NOTICE.—The funeral services of the late JAMES LITCHFORD, will take place this morning (Saturday) from the Baptist Church, at 10 o'clock. The citizens of Raleigh are respectfully invited to attend the funeral.

In Fayetteville, on Thursday morning August 18th, Mrs. KATE M. HUSKE, wife of Mr. William Huske, aged 34 years.

Morning Edition

TELEGRAPHIC.

Friday Evening Dispatches.

FOREIGN.

PARIS, Sept. 2.—In the absence of official reports from the commanding Generals, the ministry publish the following from the multitude of dispatches from various Belgian towns up to 8 o'clock, August 31st: The following details received, which bear the character of probability: On the 30th a series of engagements occurred between Mouzon and the enemy near Mouzon, lasting from 5 A. M. to 5 at night—Our troops were attacked from the woody heights of Stenay, a position which we had recently evacuated. The attack, which was vigorous, forced our troops to retrograde, but at 2 o'clock we took the offensive and retained it till 7 o'clock, when the darkness ended operations. After night fall were re-crossed the Meuse in order to form again, near Dunchenry, a few miles east of Mouzon. The engagement of this first day's fighting cost us no stole losses while inflicting heavy losses on the enemy.

The Prussians burnt Monmourd and killed five of the inhabitants. The next day the 31st the Prussians again took the offensive at seven in the morning on the left bank of the Meuse between Donchery and Doucherry. Our forces retreated slowly until McMahon had drawn the Prussians into an angle formed by the ramparts of Sedan and the heights on the left bank of the river. Here the Prussians experienced heavy losses and were compelled on account of the murderous fire to retreat. They crossed this about noon, with drawing towards Villemontry and after several attempts placed themselves on the opposite side of the Meuse. On the morning of the 31st, McMahon crossed Mouzon at Mouzon. Everything indicates that the engagement will be resumed to-day.

The papers report obscurely their French successor without locating them.

BERLIN, Sept. 2.—P. M. official news is still behind. It is known that a series of battles occurred on the 30th and 31st; both sides losing heavily. On Wednesday the Prussians were drawn under the guns of Sedan, where they suffered terribly before being able to cross the river. McMahon moved to Mouzon on Wednesday morning and yesterday commenced to cross

PUFF OF SATISFACTION.—Nothing is more grateful than the solace of a good-flavored and free-smoking cigar. Such are Mohegan's Bankers, the best cigars for their price in the country. We honestly think two boxes of Mohegan's Bankers might be induced to influence even Grant to compassion in regard to the suffering Cubans.

We recommend the Bankers, and know whereof we affirm, for as we write we are consoled with the profound satisfaction of puffing one, and enjoy it hugely.—Norfolk Journal.

THE EQUITABLE

HAS BECOME THE LEADING COMPANY OF THE WORLD.

Its New Business (sum assured), for the year 1869, exceeded that of the second company in rank by more than THIRTEEN MILLION DOLLARS.

In 1860 it was the 9th Company in new business for the year; in 1861 it was the 8th; in 1862 and 1863, the 7th; in 1864 and 1865 the 6th; in 1866, the 4th; in 1867, the 3d; in 1868, the 2nd;

In 1869 it was the FIRST.

The insuring public should not allow itself to be deceived with regard to the term "Annual Dividends." Many companies using this expression mean that their dividends are "annual" AFTER THEY ONCE BEGIN TO PAY THEM AT ALL; but they DO NOT BEGIN TO PAY until the settlement of the third, fourth, or fifth premium.

One hundred Dollars paid in dividends at the end of one year, and each year thereafter, equals FOUR HUNDRED AND THIRTY-SIX DOLLARS paid at the end of FOUR YEARS, interest at six per cent.

Applications for Assurance may be made to any of the Society Agents throughout the country, or in person or by letter to the General Agents.

Gentlemen of character desirous of forming a connection with the Society as Agents are invited to communicate with its General Agents.

POLICIES VALUABLE IN LIFE, AS WELL AS AT DEATH!!

THE BROOKLYN LIFE, IS THE ONLY COMPANY IN AMERICA WHICH GUARANTEES

DEFINITE CASH SURRENDER VALUES,

IN CASE A POLICY IS FORFEITED FOR NON-PAYMENT OF PREMIUM.

The BROOKLYN LIFE enjoys the highest reputation for judgment of investment, economy of management, and skil and care in the selection of risks,—upon which elements of administration the security of a Life Insurance Corporation depends.

The laws of New York compel Companies in that State to calculate the Cash value of their Policies, each and every year, and a certain legal standard of reserve and accumulation must be held by the Companies to meet all their liabilities.

Insurers, in looking around for Companies in which to insure, should carefully seek for this important safeguard. It will be found in the BROOKLYN LIFE.

YOUNG, HEALTHY, VIGOROUS AND CONDUCTED BY A WISE, PRUDENT, AND ECONOMICAL BOARD OF DIRECTORS UPON A

NEW SYSTEM,

devised by its talented and distinguished Actuary CHAS. N. MORGAN, which must make it the leading Company in America, for persons in and all who appreciate and demand the most UNQUESTIONABLE SECURITY, at rates in most cases, considerably lower than those of the leading Mutual Cash Companies.

The Excelsior issues Polices on all the plans of Mutual or Stock Companies, extending to policy holders, all their really desirable advantages. Its policies being non-forfeiting, the insured are privileged to live and travel where they please in any healthy part of the world, they participate in the profits, are allowed 30 days grace for payment of renewal of premium, a cash surrender value of policy, and a privilege which has never been offered by any other Company, that of converting Policies into after the payment of 5 or more annual premiums.

☞ Hitherto, I have been restricted in the very popular Company which I had the honor to represent to Stock rates alone which most of the Mutual, and mixed Companies have adopted. This disadvantage, together with the multiplication of many new Companies, in this State who claimed to possess unusual charms, together with the extraordinary attractions presented by the popular features of other Companies, represented in this State, without an exception, and the additional privilege of converting policies, which the holder can not afford to keep up, or wishes to discontinue, because of the death of those for whose benefit the policy was secured, led us to adopt the Annuity Bond which provides an income in cash through life, or for a series of years as preferred.

Circulars giving full explanations and any other information, will be cheerfully furnished.

The most liberal arrangements, will be made with first class solicitors, to push the Excelsior forward in the Old North State, to that position which her low rates and most ample security entitle her to occupy.
